

FACT SHEET CONFIDENTIALITY

NOTICE

Employers (i.e., filers) should read the 2023 EEO-1 Component 1 Instruction Booklet (i.e., “Instruction Booklet”) prior to and in conjunction with using the below “fact sheet.” Filers must ensure they are complying with the EEOC’s substantive filing requirements detailed in the Instruction Booklet and should not refer solely to this “fact sheet” to complete their required 2023 EEO-1 Component 1 filing. The 2023 EEO-1 Component 1 Instruction Booklet may be accessed at the following link on the EEOC’s dedicated EEO-1 Component 1 website (www.eeocdata.org/eeo1):
https://www.eeocdata.org/pdfs/2023 EEO 1 Component 1 Instruction Booklet.pdf.

All reports and any information from individual reports are subject to the confidentiality provisions of Section 709(e) of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-8(e), as amended (Title VII) and may not be made public by the EEOC prior to the institution of any proceeding under Title VII involving the EEO-1 Component 1 data. Any EEOC employee who violates this prohibition may be found guilty of a criminal misdemeanor and could be fined or imprisoned. The confidentiality requirements allow the EEOC to publish only aggregated data, and only in a manner that does not identify any particular filer or reveal any individual employee’s personal information.

The Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) obtains EEO-1 Component 1 reports for federal contractors pursuant to its legal authority under Executive Order 11246 and its implementing regulations. Because OFCCP obtains EEO-1 data for contractors under its own E.O. 11246 authority, some courts have ruled that the Title VII prohibition against disclosure does not apply to OFCCP’s collection of EEO-1 data. See, e.g., United Techs. Corp. v. Marshall, 464 F. Supp. 845, 851-52 (D. Conn. 1979); Sears Roebuck & Co. v. Gen. Servs. Admin., 509 F.2d 527, 529 (D.C. Cir. 1974). Accordingly, the EEO-1 Component 1 data of federal contractors received by OFCCP may be subject to potential disclosure by OFCCP under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), although FOIA exemptions may prevent disclosure. For more information, see the Department of Labor’s FOIA regulations at 41 CFR part 70 and frequently asked questions (Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Frequently Asked Questions | U.S. Department of Labor (dol.gov)) at <https://www.dol.gov/agencies/ofccp/faqs/foia>.

With respect to other federal agencies with a legitimate law enforcement purpose but without OFCCP’S independent authority to collect EEO-1 data, the EEOC gives access to information collected under Title VII only if the agencies agree, by letter or memorandum of understanding, to comply with the confidentiality provisions of Title VII. In addition, section 709(d) 42 U.S.C. 2000e-8(d) provides that the EEOC shall furnish upon request and without cost to state or local civil rights agencies information about employers in their jurisdiction on the condition that they not make it public prior to starting a proceeding under state or local law involving such information. The EEOC shares EEO-1 data with state or local Fair Employment Practices Agencies (FEPAs) pursuant to Worksharing Agreements that impose obligations on the contracted FEPA with respect to confidentiality, privacy, and data security. On a case-by-case basis, the EEOC may share EEO-1 data with a FEPA that does not have a Worksharing Agreement, but only if that FEPA agrees to comply with confidentiality, privacy, and data security obligations similar to those imposed on FEPAs with Worksharing Agreements.

EEOC 2023 EEO-1 Component 1 Data Collection

All updates about the 2023 EEO-1 Component 1 data collection, including the 2023 EEO-1 Component 1 Instruction Booklet and the 2023 EEO-1 Component 1 Data File Upload Specifications, are available on the EEOC's dedicated EEO-1 Component 1 website at www.eeocdata.org/eeo1.

To further assist filers, the EEOC provides supplementary resource materials (e.g., user's guide; frequently asked questions (FAQs); fact sheets; mini help desk guides) at the opening of each data collection. Access by registered EEO-1 Component 1 Online Filing System (OFS) account holders to these supplementary resource materials is available through the EEOC's dedicated EEO-1 Component 1 data collection website at www.eeocdata.org/eeo1.

The deadline to file the 2023 EEO-1 Component 1 report is 11:00 pm ET (i.e., Eastern Time) on Tuesday, June 4, 2024 (i.e., "Published Due Date"). Following the Tuesday, June 4, 2024 "Published Due Date" deadline, the EEOC will enter the "Failure to File" phase. All employers who have not submitted and certified their mandatory 2023 EEO-1 Component 1 report(s) by the Tuesday, June 4, 2024 "Published Due Date" deadline will receive a "Notice of Failure to File" from the EEOC instructing them to submit and certify their data as soon as possible, and no later than 11:00 pm ET (i.e., Eastern Time) on Tuesday, July 9, 2024 (i.e., "Failure to File" deadline). After the Tuesday, July 9, 2024 "Failure to File" deadline passes, no additional 2023 EEO-1 Component 1 report(s) will be accepted, and eligible employers will be out of compliance with their mandatory 2023 EEO-1 Component 1 filing obligations.

The EEO-1 Component 1 report is a mandatory annual data collection that requires all private sector employers with 100 or more employees, and federal contractors with 50 or more employees meeting certain criteria, to submit workforce demographic data, including data by job category and sex and race or ethnicity, to the EEOC. The authorities under which EEO-1 Component 1 data are collected include: Section 709(c) of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 2000e, et seq., and Sections 1602.7-1602.14, Chapter XIV, Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR); Exec. Order No. 11246, 30 FR 12319 (Sept. 24, 1965) and 40 CFR 60-1.7(a).
